DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on September 5, 2007 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 8 – 13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Botha (US 7,272,769)

Regarding Claim 8, Botha teaches an apparatus comprising a processor for processing digital signals to produce a modulating signal for radio transmitter circuitry (Figure 2, Cols. 3 lines 3 – 5, lines 29 – 32, lines 45 – 47, typical UEs comprise processors) the processor being configured to implement a protocol stack having a physical layer and a medium access control layer, above the physical layer, wherein the medium access control layer provides a plurality of transport channels which are combined and then interleaved to produce said modulating signal (Cols. 3 lines 29 – 60, 4 lines 1 – 38, the physical layer enables the creation of physical channels, the UMTS protocol stack comprises a MAC layer and a physical layer), each transport channel being configured to process a signal according to one of a plurality of process schemes, the configuration of which is established during a call setup (Cols. 3 lines 48 – 60, 4 lines 7 – 21, the cited operations are conducted during a call setup, CRC and rate matching are the process schemes).

Regarding Claim 9, Botha teaches all of the claimed limitations recited in Claim 8. Botha further teaches wherein said interleaving is performed on blocks of data constituting a plurality of bursts (Cols. 1 lines 25 – 27, 4 lines 30 – 38, GSM comprises data bursts).

Regarding Claim 10, Botha teaches all of the claimed limitations recited in Claim 8. Botha further teaches wherein the processor performs interleaving of said transport channels immediately before they are combined (Col. 4 lines 1 – 29).

Regarding Claim 11, Botha teaches all of the claimed limitations recited in Claim 8. Botha further teaches wherein the plurality of process schemes includes at least one of a cyclic redundancy check, channel coding and rate matching (Cols. 3 lines 48 – 60, 4 lines 7 – 21).

Regarding Claim 12, Botha teaches all of the claimed limitations recited in Claim 8. Botha further teaches wherein a multiplexer is arranged to multiplex interleaved data output by the transport channel immediately prior to transmitting data to a physical layer (Col. 4 lines 23 – 29).

Regarding Claim 13, Botha teaches all of the claimed limitations recited in Claim 12. Botha further teaches wherein the physical layer comprises an interleaver for further interleaving of the signal output from the medium access control layer, immediately subsequent to combination of the transport channel (Col. 4 lines 30 – 38).
